

Through Our Eyes Teen Application

Are you a teenager looking to develop your photography skills? Look no further than the Walters Art Museum's eight-week teen photography course, Through Our Eyes, running January through February 2024 with a four-day exhibition and reception on March 14–17, 2024.

Dates of Program

Every Thursday, January 11–February 19, 4–6 p.m.

Exhibition Reception on Thursday, March 14, 6–8 p.m.

Program Overview

Through Our Eyes is a teen photography program with a small cohort of teens who will use photography as a vehicle for telling stories that matter to them and their communities. They will learn the fundamentals of camera operation using a DSLR, further their portfolio development, and gain photography skills with guidance, mentorship, and inspiration from Walters Art Museum staff and esteemed Baltimore-native photographer and artist SHAN Wallace!

SHAN Wallace is a nomadic award-winning interdisciplinary artist and image-maker from Baltimore, MD. She has photographed for newspapers and magazines like The Washington Post, The New York Times, Vanity Fair, Vice, The Cut, New Balance, and Hypebeast. Read more.

Applications must include a parent/guardian signature and be delivered in person to the museum front desk or emailed to teenprograms@thewalters.org. Must be ages 13-17 to apply.
